Job Description: Private Hunting Club Farm Manager

Position Overview:

As a Farm Manager at our Private Hunting Club, you will play a pivotal role in overseeing the day-to-day farming and maintenance operations for our exclusive 300 acre hunting grounds and facilities. You will be responsible for farming approximately 200 acres and maintaining farm facilities. Interacting with Club members (7 total) in a professional and cordial manner. You will report and take direction from the Managing Partner solely.

Responsibilities:

Farming:

- Coordinating and purchasing seed, fertilizer, lime, and spraying chemicals from local suppliers. Coordinating soil testing for appropriate fertilizer.
- Prepare fields for planting, which includes, but is not limited to tilling and discing fields, planting, spraying, and irrigating if necessary.
- Coordinating cutting corn for silage or contracting it out to another farmer. We have historical done both.

Hunting Season:

- Harvest corn in a very specific manner to enhance our hunting.
- Prepare ponds and blinds for hunting season
- Camo and repair blinds for hunting season.

Infrastructure and Facilities:

- Oversee the maintenance of club facilities, lodges, and amenities.
- Manage equipment, vehicles, and trails to ensure safety and accessibility.
- Coordinate repairs and improvements as needed to all equipment and facilities

Qualifications:

- Farming experience
- Operation and maintenance of all farm equipment.
- Strong work ethic, good communication, and interpersonal skills.

Perks and Benefits:

- Competitive compensation package
- We will provide housing while under contract.
