

Kids Stuff

Fun for kids at the local libraries

Louie Foxx Magic Show

Gasp in amazement at Louie Foxx, Award Winning Magician and two-time Guinness World Record Holder, as he features his magic tricks and other skills while also including motivational reading message. Louie Foxx's Reading is Magic Show will be Dec. 17 at 4 p.m. at the Snohomish Library, 311 Maple Ave.

Louie Foxx will entertain with Reading is Magic Dec. 17 at the Snohomish Library, 311 Maple Avenue.

Squishy Slime

Is slime a solid or a fluid? Add different items to slime, squish it around, explore the density, and see what happens! Dec. 14 at 4 p.m. at the Snohomish Library, 311 Maple Ave.

Snow Forts

Join your fellow Minecrafters and put your snow fort building skills to the test! Prizes awarded in several skill categories. Space is limited on a first come, first serve basis. For grades 4-12. Monroe Library, 1070 Village Way, Dec. 11 at 3:30 p.m.

Build a Fort!

The library will supply the cardboard, tools, and building basics ready for you to explore engineering concepts in a fun and collaborative way. For ages

5-11. Monroe Library, 1070 Village Way, Jan. 4 at 1 p.m.

Treehouse Battle

Join your fellow Minecrafters and put your treehouse building skills to the test! Space is limited on a first come, first serve basis. For grades 4-12. Monroe Library, 1070 Village Way, Jan. 8 at 3:30 p.m.

Save Herman the Worm!

Enjoy this logic puzzle game and more, which may require some coordination, experimentation and critical thinking skills. Snohomish Library, 311 Maple Ave., Jan. 4 at 4 p.m.

Learn to Slime

Combine household materials to make a goopy chemical concoction! For ages 5-11. Monroe Library, 1070 Village Way, Jan. 2 at 1 p.m.

Sarvey Wildlife Presents Raptors

Come see real birds of prey and learn how the Sarvey Wildlife Center rescues these fierce but damaged birds. 10 a.m. on Dec. 18 at the Snohomish Library, 311 Maple Ave.

Come see real birds of prey at the Snohomish Library Dec. 18.

The Shoemaker & the Elf

Who could possibly be making shoes for the elderly shoemaker? Children adore the thrill of anticipation as they watch the shoemaker puzzle his way through the mystery of beautifully finished shoes appearing on his workbench. The Mary Shaver Marionettes present this delightful fairytale with its impishly magical elf, a devoted daughter with baking issues, and a Queen who collects shoes! Everett Library, 2702 Hoyt, Dec. 27 at 11 a.m.

Minecraft Build Challenge

Work together or on your own to build the best Minecraft structure. Registration required. Dec. 20 at 10 a.m. at the Snohomish Library, 311 Maple Ave.